

Stu's News. Saturday, October 18, 2008

1973 "oil price shock" OPEC embargo against the United States and its allies result in the subsequent 1973-1974 stock market crash. Gas lines out the ying-yang. I remember waiting in line overnight to get a fill up

1987 October 19th, Black Monday. By the end of October, stock markets in Hong Kong had fallen 45.8%, Australia 41.8%, Spain 31%, the United Kingdom 26.4%, the United States 22.68%, and Canada 22.5%. It all came back....

2000 to 2002 The Dot-com bubble crashes wiping out $5 trillion in market value of technology companies. That's why I now sell wine. October 2008, The Credit Crunch.....? Relax

So what's the best way to weather these economic storms? Well for those of us that don't have a relax button, good drink of course! Not very many of us will be getting our new BMW this year or taking that trip to France, but we are still entitled to treat ourselves. This is the time to enjoy life's little pleasures.

- Stop by Mr Charles Market, your neighborhood market, pick up one of our Meal Deals.
- Put on your favorite sweater, invite some friends over and clean off that deck.
- Let me help you pick one of our amazing wines to go with dinner. You deserve it.

I'm featuring a bunch of great wines this month.

CYT Casillero Del Diablo

Privada Reserva Cabernet Sauvignon & Syrah $16.99

Big and bold, smooth. Dark and deep red color. Luscious fruit flavors: cherries, currants, berries and plums. It has a mouth filling texture and is soft, but well structured.

Producer: Brancott $10.99

Description: Sauvignon Blanc

Vintage: 2005

Region: New Zealand

Aromas of ripe capsicum, gooseberry, and grapefruit dominate with tropical fruit notes apparent. This wine, considered the benchmark of New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc, is from fruit harvested across the Marlborough region with its world famous reputation for the variety. This wine displays full fruit intensity. The ripe capsicum flavors meld well with gooseberry and supporting mango and passion fruit flavors. A well-balanced wine showing the lively, crisp acidity

Producer: Peter Lehman $14.99

Description: Clancy's Red

Vintage: 2005 Region: Australia

Grapes: 35% Shiraz, 34% Cabernet Sauvignon, 26% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc

Robust and full-bodied wine, showing delicious velvet fruit on the palate extremely high quality. A food friendly wine, Clancy's is ideal to share at a barbeque. Delicious with steak, lamb, roast chicken, spaghetti bolognese or as one enthusiast wrote, the perfect accompaniment to a good book!
