

Stu's News. Friday October 24, 2008

Where else can you get a bagel, lox and cream cheese, with a bottle of Dom Perignon Champagne and a 1/2 gallon of milk? Mr. Charles Market of course. One of our regular customers, Mrs. D, comes in and that is exactly what she purchased. It then occurred to me that where else can you get all the items I sell at the same place, well nowhere else. Right here in your neighborhood. Maybe you haven't been by in a while, well its time to return to your neighborhood market.
